

Aspects of Germanic Prosody

University of Oxford, Faculty of Linguistics, Philology and Phonetics
Somerville College, September 6-9, 2014

September 6, Saturday
17.00	Carlos Gussenhoven	In defense of a Franconian tonogenesis account
September 7, Sunday
9.30	Paul Kiparsky	The Origin of Scandinavian Accent: Evidence from Modern Dialects
10.30	Tea/Coffee
11.00	Allison Wetterlin	Word accent in North Germanic: in the beginning there was stød
12.00	Marc van Oostendorp	The birth of the iamb in 17th Century Leiden
13.00	Lunch
14.30	Paula Fikkert	Evidence for Middle Dutch word prosody from Lutgart
15.30	Ben Hermans	The laryngeal properties of C2 in Germanic CVCV-CL
16.30	Tea/Coffee
17.00	Johanneke Sytsema	Middle Dutch OSL nog een keer
September 8, Monday
9.30	René Kager	The Internally Layered foot in Dutch word prosody
10.30	Tea/Coffee
11.00	B. Elan Dresher	The influence of Latin and Romance loanwords on Germanic stress systems
12.00	Frans Plank	Advantage Trochee
13.00	Lunch
14.30	Janet Grijzenhout	Coronal affixes and voicing: Dutch and its neighbours
15.30	Tomas Riad	Meter as improvement and subversion
16.30	Tea/Coffee
17.00	Aditi Lahiri	En- and Pro-cliticisation in Middle Dutch
September 9, Tuesday (morning)	Oxford tour including the Bodleian

Organisers: Aditi Lahiri & Johanneke Sytsema
Funded by a research grant from the AHRC